▶ Question 15: WHAT MAKES ADHD CHILDREN AND ADULTS UNIQUE?

A: ADHD people are highly intelligent, some even a genius! You are very creative, very visual. Extremely loyal and trustworthy. You love people, although very few people understand you. You will prove a point if they tell you, you can't do something challenging! You can make a success of your life, if you do something you are passionate about. Don't try to limit them, because ADHD people are "limitless"! You don't like routine, you get bored easily. Try to understand who you are. You can also have symptoms of OCD, but only because you are a perfectionist.
